Conference Overview:

Thursday's activities will include a MCRSP board meeting, three-hour training on ethics specifically geared to housing but applicable to all. The welcome activities will include networking, the popular silent auction, heavy hors oeuvres, music and a screening of Bobbi Jo Reed's film, called "Under the Influence," followed by a question and answer opportunity with Bobbi Jo.

Friday's agenda will include welcome statements by local legislators, Taney County Sheriff, Brad Daniels, and the MCRSP Board President, Ladell Flowers. Our Keynote speaker will be Bath Fisher-Sanders, founding Member and former President of NARR. In the morning she will highlight Social Model Recovery, and the afternoon she will discuss Recovery Capital as grounded in Social Model Recovery. Other activities for Friday include entertainment, and update from Rosie Anderson-Harper from DMH, a panel about growing peer leaders, the silent auction, networking, food and more.

We look forward to seeing you!
